SCAFL shines bright at Shoalhaven carnival

Sapphire Coast AFL juniors came painfully close to dominating the Shoalhaven Carnival in Nowra over the weekend.

Three squads played hard-fought grand finals to finish runner-up, while a fourth Sapphire Coast squad claimed third in great displays of finesse and skill.

"Historically at the carnival we've done really well, it's a credit to the clubs and the young players down here rising to the occasion," SCAFL coordinator Jarrod Moore said.

Moore said there were always players that shine under pressure and step up in tournament situations, but said he was impressed overall by the great displays of the Sapphire Coast's five teams.

Moore heaped praise on the under 12s, who went down to the Illawarra in the final to finish second.

"Looking at their games, it was a really good all-round performance, five or six players were lifting in each game, but there was no real standouts," he said.

He said the 14.5s were the big-improvers of the carnival after a shaky start, but claimed third overall with a win in the consolation final over the Central West.

The team were on the younger end of the scale and were facing more experienced and often bigger players across the competition, but rallied to boast a strong finish to the weekend.

Meanwhile, Sapphire Coast had two girls' teams entered this year, which Moore said has basically joined forces by the end of the draw.

"Unfortunately we had a few late withdrawals, but a lot of the girls played for both teams and I think it's a testament to their great sportsmanship and character, backing up," Moore said.

"They were buggered by the end of the carnival, but had joined forces and were walking around as one big team of 30 players."

The 'north' girls squad finished second after a loss to the Central West, while the 'southern' girls squad succumbed to the Illawarra in the consolation final.

The under 17s also finished runner-up after going down to the Illawarra by just a couple of goals in a close final.

Moore praised Will Regan, who backed up from his recent rep experience as an emerging senior player at the Merimbula Diggers.

"He was voted best on ground by our players," he said.

Moore also commended Jedd Martyn, Caleb Higgins and Tarni Evans who will compete for NSW at All Schools Nationals later this month.

"It's an amazing effort for those three, there are only 22 spots up for grabs [in each team] across the whole state," he said.

The All Schools Nationals will be contested in Perth.

SCAFL seniors locking horns

Three Sapphire Coast AFL senior games will go ahead as one big draw at Bermagui's Dickinson Oval on Saturday.

Women's matches will return on July 15, but all six senior sides will descend on Bermagui in what has been dubbed the SCAFL mega-round.

The Tathra Sea Eagles will be in for a big challenge when they meet the Pambula Panthers, but will be without the services of a few vital players.

The club will go into the contest missing captain Luke Taylor, while goal-scoring prodigy Dean Gartside will also be absent and so will be young blood Blake Grant.

However, Taylor said he was confident of the team the Sea Eagles would put forward and said after a week of recuperation, the Eagles could give the Panthers a good shake.

The team will welcome the return of hard-working mid Chris Dwyer and Josh Wilkinson and will be looking to Louis Coulton to emulate his early-season form in front of the goals.

Meanwhile, the Panthers will look to their trusted front men in Jake Taylor and Jordan Pilgrim, while the Sea Eagles will be calling on some of their young guns to step up in vital roles.

Tathra will also look to shore up their back-line to keep the Panthers at bay with Jarrod Palmer heading up the defensive efforts.

However, while the Panthers present the clear and current danger to the Sea Eagles, Taylor said the club's focus was and will remain to be finals time.

"It's not always about winning now, it's about winning in September," he said ahead of the contest.

Six rounds remain in the home and away season with the Sea Eagles currently sitting in third, just four points behind the Panthers with the Narooma Lions a further four points clear at the top of the table.

Statistically, Pambula boasts the best defensive roster in the competition, letting through just 414 points this season, but the Sea Eagles are the competition's leading attacking outfit by almost 120 points clear of their nearest rival.

The Sea Eagles have kicked one shy of 1000 points to date and will look to their strong attacking presence to pressure the Panthers.

Other matches on Saturday will see the Lions taking on the Merimbula Diggers, and the Bermagui Breakers clashing with the Eden Whalers.

Games will run in a straight sequence with the Sea Eagles to run on at 12.30pm.

The season will resume as normal in round 11 on July 15 when the Sea Eagles travel to meet the Narooma Lions on their home turf at Bill Smyth Memorial Oval.

Round 10 Preview

Round 10 sees the introduction of the Mega Round in to the Sapphire Coast AFL competition for the first time. Bermagui is set to host a triple header plus a make up under 16's match in what is set to be a massive day of football at Dickinson Oval. The mega round has been in the pipeline for a couple of years now with each club now having the opportunity to watch and scout the way each other plays.

Narooma v Merimbula

Game one of the Mega Round sees the Narooma Lions taking on the Merimbula Diggers in what should be a good start to the day. The Diggers hold on to a slim hope of making the four although will need to claim some wins against the likes of Narooma, Tathra and Pambula if they are to make the finals as Bermagui has the head to head edge. The Lions have been giant predators in 2017 picking off their pray week to week with their only loss a single digit loss to second placed Pambula. Simon Mackie showed last time out that he is able to work through a double team by working his way into the midfield and bringing into the game Narooma's secondary forwards. The Lions will be heavy favourites in this match although the Diggers will be confident after a good showing against Bermagui in their last fixture with the side running out of time in the fourth quarter in a match that they could have snatched from the jaws of defeat. With some key players back in the fold in the likes of Dylan Jordan and Scott Richmond, the Diggers will be a tougher opponent for the Lions this time out.

Player to Watch: Dylan Jordan, The Merimbula big man has found a spot down back in his past two games before he heads into shoulder surgery and has been effective in those two games. Still has the ability to play forward and may be asked to swing between the two positions this weekend. Prediction: Narooma by 21 Points.

Tathra v Pambula

The second match for the mega round is the match of the round with Tathra to take on Pambula. The last time these two met was a month ago with Pambula claiming the contest that went the full four quarters. This is an important match in the run to the finals with a Pambula win to consolidate second spot on the ladder and see Tathra fall two games behind the Panthers in the chase for a double chance come finals time. Pambula could see the return of favourite son Adam Nelson to the side whilst the Sea Eagles look to have Adam Blacka and Joshua Wilkinson back for the clash although could be without Dean Gartside who has not yet been named to take on the Panther this weekend. A game with big implications on the ladder looks like it could go the full four quarters and has rightly been billed the match of the round. Player to Watch: Richard Spink, The Tathra big man is a key man for the Sea Eagles. Has the ability to push forward although has been asked to do a bit more in the ruck in 2017 due to player losses. Prediction: Pambula by 13 Points.

Bermagui v Eden

The home club in Bermagui will be looking to consolidate fourth spot on the ladder whilst putting on a show for their home supporters during the mega round this weekend. The Breakers were lucky to escape with the win last time out against the Merimbula Diggers after fading in the fourth quarter. The Breakers looked uninspired last time out and will need to find a solid option up forward for the remainder of the season if they are to challenge others come finals time. With Jack Hannebery absent for the rest of the season the Breakers will be hoping Luke Kingston can stay on the paddock and play some consistent football. The Whalers form has taken a dip in 2017 due to a number of injuries to key players within the squad and the club will be looking to get through the remainder of the season without anymore serious injuries. The Whalers will look to be competitive this weekend although Bermagui may be to strong for the depleted Whalers. Player to Watch: River Reid, The Bermagui defender has been playing his best football of his career in 2017 with the dash he is providing off half back vital for Bermagui to start its attacks. Prediction: Bermagui by 70 Pts.

Under 16's

In the under 16's this weekend the Narooma Lions take on the Pambula Panthers in a catch up game from round 5 which was washed out. Both sides wont be at full strength due to the school holidays although Pambula should still be too strong for Narooma who has struggled with consistency in 2017 due to player availability and commitment. The Panthers are gunning for the premiership after being beaten by Merimbula in 2016 and a win this weekend will see the side have a firm grasp on a top two finish. Player to Watch: Angus Tarpey, was the player to watch for the under 17's Stingrays last weekend and stepped up in a big way as one of the best. Prediction: Pambula.
