TIPS FOR ADULTS AT KIDS SPORT

1. Keep it fun
don't take it
too seriously

It's not the world titles

6. Let coaches
do the coaching

2. Be enthusiastic
but don't scream
& shout instructions
from the sideline

7. Always remember,
volunteers
run kids sport

3. Emphasise trying hard not winning

8. Understand, uphold
and support your club's code of conduct

4. Cheer & acknowledge good plays by all players

9. Allow your child to play for themselves
Let kids make the decisions
on and off the field

5. Accept decisions
by officials
they are human & can make mistakes

10. Think before
you speak
Your words may harm others

YOUTH GIRLS SEAL DOMINANT CARNIVAL

WITH GRAND FINAL WIN

The Sapphire Coast AFL has enjoyed a successful junior representative carnival in Nowra over the weekend, with three of its four sides making the grand final.

The youth girls were the stars, going undefeated on their way to a grand final victory over Central West, while the under 13s and under 15s both lost to Illawarra in the final.

AFL Sapphire Coast's football operations coordinator Jarrod Moore said the results were a great sign for the future of the competition.

"At the moment we've got a lot of young talented kids coming through the juniors, and I'm really proud of the way they played on the weekend," he said. "The challenge around here is trying to keep a hold of them."

Moore said there were a number of standouts throughout the weekend.

"Tarni Evans was fantastic for the youth girls," he said. "She's obviously played under 16s state footy, and she really excelled over the weekend."

"Angelita Hochkins from Bermagui played a really solid grand final, she was probably our best in that game. Girls like Jorja Moore and Zalie Betts also had outstanding carnivals."

"In the under 13s, Campbell Moresi from Bermagui had a really good carnival, he stood out across the four games. Elijah Turner-Collins from Broulee Moruya always seems to turn it on for rep rounds."

"Narooma's Tommy Hodge was the best for the 15s. He got in and under, and won plenty of the ball."

"In the 17s, Jack Hirst from Broulee Moruya was the pick of the weekend. He's a relatively new player, but he had a really great carnival off half back."

Sapphire Coast's youth girls side was the only side to break Illawarra's dominance, a testament to the strong women's competition in the SCAFL.

"It just goes to show getting on the front foot three or four years ago with the women's comp has really paid off in spades," Moore said. "South Coast and Illawarra only started their competitions this year, and the extra two or three years has allowed our girls to get ahead of the curve."

"I'm really proud of the club's in embracing it earlier than other regions. Most of the clubs are in traditional country football areas where girls weren't meant to play footy, but they've embraced it, and they've come along in leaps and bounds."

Moore said the weekend couldn't have happened without the support of the families involved.

"Thanks to the parents and players for putting their hands up, and the coaches and support staff who did a great job throughout the weekend," he said. "We didn't have any issues with parents or coaches, so they did a fantastic job in leading their teams to a great weekend."

DIGGERS UPSTAGE EAGLES ON REUNION WEEKEND

Donning replica jumpers of the 1988 flag-winning team, the Tathra Sea Eagles couldn't quite match the result of their 30-year club ancestors.

The senior Aussie rules outfit went down in a close battle with the Merimbula Diggers 13-8-86 to 10-13-73.

Play was erratic from the first ball up with fast and furious clearances seeing the Diggers take the lion's share of the early ball.

However, the Eagles - eager to please a large home crowd on their reunion weekend - quickly tipped the scales in the first quarter through some excellent passages where Shane and Dean Gartside threw themselves into the middle contest and set up the Tathra front lines well.

Tom Lipsham was also heavily involved as play focused largely around the middle early in the piece as Tathra turned the early deficit into a handy lead with three goals late in the quarter.

Merimbula's backlines were stalwart and scoring opportunities became more scarce for the hosts with Rick Spink leading the count on two goals.

Meanwhile, the other eight came from an array of individual goal kickers, including plenty of forward motion from the mid-fielders like Luke Taylor, Chris Dwyer and Dennis Paratene.

At the opposite end of the ground, the Diggers were more pointed with their attack, as Jack Burch fired four of the Diggers' goals.

Cameron Farrell, Lance Musgrave and Will Regan each kicked a pair as the Diggers found strength in high-flying contested marks.

Ian McBain and Adam Blacka were also strong for the Tathra side, injecting a bit of physicality into contests and clearing the ball from a few messy passages of play.

Despite the even contest, the Diggers surged back to a seven-point lead at the main break, and extending the margin by a single point in the third quarter.

The Diggers showed up big in the final quarter, to outscore the Eagles four goals to three and lock in the win.

The loss means the Sea Eagles have slipped to fourth on the table behind the Pambula Panthers.

Earlier games saw the competition-leading Merimbula and Tathra reserve grade outfits share a draw on the day, with officials remarking it will be exciting to see the two clubs head in to finals as they track really evenly.

In ladies play, the Eaglettes dominated the visiting Diggers with an 11-10-76 to 1-0-6 scoreline.

Tyjana Blacka featured at full forward to kick five goals on the day, while Tyra-Lee Palmer featured heavily to be named best on ground and bag two goals for the hosts.

There is a general bye this weekend.

Round 11 Preview

Pambula v Narooma

It was a tough loss last time out for the Panthers, although they will have a chance to get their revenge over the Narooma Lions this weekend on home soil. The Panthers will be hopeful that Jordan Pilgrim will be able to ruck this weekend for long stretches with Harrison Peters still recovering from a foot injury sustained surfing. The Panthers did a good job of keeping Simon Mackie quiet in their last match-up although Jai Reed stepped to the fore booting 5 goals for the Lions. Reed has had a mixed season between playing for the Lions, GWS NEAFL side whilst recovering from last seasons knee injury and will be looking to play his best football of the season in the latter stages of the season as the Lions look to push for grand final success. At this point of the season, the top two is slipping away from the Panthers and another loss this weekend could see the side slip 12 points behind Merimbula in second. If the panthers are unable to sneak into the top two, they will definitely want a home semi final, especially if they are to take on the Tathra Sea Eagles. Look for the Panthers to put in a bounce back performance this weekend. Player to Watch: Ethan Adams, Adams was apart of the Panthers reserve grade premiership last season and has taken the step up to play regular senior football in 2018. A staple of the Panthers backline, Adams will have his work cut out this weekend against the leagues best forward line.

Prediction: Narooma by 25 Points.

Merimbula v Eden

The Diggers have been one of the form teams of the league over the past weeks and Merimbula will be looking to keep that streak going on home soil this weekend. The last time these two played at Berrambool was in torrential rain and both teams will be hoping for clear conditions come Saturday. Merimbula are set to be without some key players Justin Burch, Jedd Martyn and Cameron Farrel set to miss the clash due to the three being away whilst Caleb Higgins who has been dominating in 2018 for the team is set to miss due to a forearm injury. The Whalers welcome back midfielder Brayden Grimmond after a couple of weeks off and Eden will be hopeful of pushing the Diggers for four quarters after doing so for three quarters at the Eden Football Ground. After a couple of weeks off, the Whalers will be keen to impress and notch win number one, although will have their work cut out for them against Merimbula who are clear in second place on the ladder. Player to Watch: Joshua Brown, In his first full season of AFL Brown has been growing in confidence each game he has played. In the Whalers last match out, Brown found himself in the midfield for the majority of the game. He has started to find plenty of the ball and uses his pace to get away from opposition players. Prediction: Merimbula by 39 Points.

Reserves Merimbula v Tathra

What an epic this match was at Lawrence Park two weeks ago. The Diggers and Sea Eagles played out the seasons first draw in dramatic fashion. With a fast Merimbula start, Tathra wrestled back control until a late Merimbula goal snatched a draw between the competitions two top sides. This weekends match has all the makings to be another cracking contest with both sides confident of their ability to claim the 4 points this weekend. With plenty of quality players running around for both squads look for this game to be n entertaining one. Merimbula will be looking forward to returnining home onto the bigger deck of Berrambool whilst the Sea Eagles will be looking to show that they are also able to play some good football on the biggers ground. Wade Edmed has been steller for the Digers this season whilst David Little has been solid down back for Tathra taking a number of intercept marks. Player to Watch: Aidyn Snow, was the hero for the Diggers last time out with his last minute opportunistic goal.

Look for Snow to have one eye on the goals this weekend. Prediction: Draw.

Junior Rep Preview

Under 15's

There is plenty of top end talent in the under 15 side in 2018 and the side will be led by Ritchie Faulkner and Scott Ballard who are both taking up the role for the first time in 2018. After a third placed finish in 2017, the side will be looking to make the final this year and have the squad to do so. There is plenty of experience in this side whilst also a number of new faces set to take on the competition. The likes of Thomas Hodge, Ryan Holdsworth, Matthew Parker, Jonathan Harkins-McMahon and Jack Faulkner have plenty of representative experience while the likes of Nic Boom, Emile Turville and Harry Raeck come into the team for their first representative experience. The side will have plenty of pace up and down the flanks with the likes of Scott Parsons, Tom O'Meara and Stuart Megee set to run and play some expansive football throughout the weekend. Frank Puglisi and Jack Harris will provide targets for the Stingrays up forward as they look to hit the scoreboard with success. Look for this side to leave it all out on the field this year. Player to Watch: Jonathan Harkins-McMahon, The Bermagui junior will be the general off half back for the team. He has shown over the past seasons that he is always up for the challenge and rises for the big occasions. Look for plenty of intercept marks in the back line.

Under 13's

After falling agonisingly short in the under 12's last season, a relatively unchanged side will come into this seasons carnival extremely confident that they go one better in 2018 and claim carnival honours. The side possesses a number key components with plenty of rep experience already. With 2018 South Coast PSSA representative in Beau Bennett, Lachlan Moresi, Walter Blewitt, Nate Woods, Logan Allison, Jarra Weston and Tasman Simons, not only is the side extremely youthful but possesses players who have been exposed to a high level of football in the past 12 months. There is plenty of experience also within the side, as it feels like players such as Campbell Moresi, Jardy Palmer and Will Kellar have been playing rep football for years. The youngest rep side will be looking to run and carry this weekend and have every opportunity to play a stylish brand of football this weekend with signs during training that they are jelling well and ready to take on the three other competing leagues. With a big game against the Illawarra on the Saturday morning, look for this game to give the side a clear indication on how they are travelling for the weekend. Player to Watch: Campbell Moresi, The Bermagui junior will be hard to stop this year up in Nowra. Moresi has grown about 2 feet in the past year looking like he should be playing under 17's. With a large engine, look for the eldest Moresi to run all weekend and drive forward.
