YOUTH GIRLS SEAL DOMINANT CARNIVAL

WITH GRAND FINAL WIN

The Sapphire Coast AFL has enjoyed a successful junior representative carnival in Nowra over the weekend, with three of its four sides making the grand final.

The youth girls were the stars, going undefeated on their way to a grand final victory over Central West, while the under 13s and under 15s both lost to Illawarra in the final.

AFL Sapphire Coast's football operations coordinator Jarrod Moore said the results were a great sign for the future of the competition.

"At the moment we've got a lot of young talented kids coming through the juniors, and I'm really proud of the way they played on the weekend," he said. "The challenge around here is trying to keep a hold of them."

Moore said there were a number of standouts throughout the weekend.

"Tarni Evans was fantastic for the youth girls," he said. "She's obviously played under 16s state footy, and she really excelled over the weekend."

"Angelita Hochkins from Bermagui played a really solid grand final, she was probably our best in that game. Girls like Jorja Moore and Zalie Betts also had outstanding carnivals."

"In the under 13s, Campbell Moresi from Bermagui had a really good carnival, he stood out across the four games. Elijah Turner-Collins from Broulee Moruya always seems to turn it on for rep rounds."

"Narooma's Tommy Hodge was the best for the 15s. He got in and under, and won plenty of the ball."

"In the 17s, Jack Hirst from Broulee Moruya was the pick of the weekend. He's a relatively new player, but he had a really great carnival off half back."

Sapphire Coast's youth girls side was the only side to break Illawarra's dominance, a testament to the strong women's competition in the SCAFL.

"It just goes to show getting on the front foot three or four years ago with the women's comp has really paid off in spades," Moore said. "South Coast and Illawarra only started their competitions this year, and the extra two or three years has allowed our girls to get ahead of the curve."

"I'm really proud of the club's in embracing it earlier than other regions. Most of the clubs are in traditional country football areas where girls weren't meant to play footy, but they've embraced it, and they've come along in leaps and bounds."

Moore said the weekend couldn't have happened without the support of the families involved.

"Thanks to the parents and players for putting their hands up, and the coaches and support staff who did a great job throughout the weekend," he said. "We didn't have any issues with parents or coaches, so they did a fantastic job in leading their teams to a great weekend."

SEA EAGLES ITCHING TO KNOCK OFF LIONS

The Tathra Sea Eagles will be under the pump when they face the Narooma Lions on Saturday.

The Lions have erupted as the front runner in a season that is increasingly becoming a two-horse race between the Narooma outfit and the resurgent Merimbula Diggers.

Since 2010, the Sea Eagles have shared the spotlight with the Pambula Panthers as the two dominant clubs - both winning three flags or more in the last decade. However, the Lions have found a ferociously spirited midfield a key contender to taking home the 2018 flag.

For the Diggers, it's been a long-reaching half-back line that coordinates play syncing up with a fast and capable forward bunch.

It's an unusual scenario as Tathra have both speed and ability in spades, but just haven't been able to make it stick against the Lions in recent outings.

The Sea Eagles will certainly not be counting themselves out of this weekend's contest, it's at the spiritual fortress of Lawrence Park; a staunch bastion where Tathra knows how to operate.

Like previously the middle will be the deciding ground in Saturday's showdown, Rick Spink has been having some good stints in the ruck and could provide a key to ensuring Tathra quality possession.

From there, Troy O'Loughlin has consistently been one of the club's strongest, but it's a double-edged sword because it also means the Lions know to mark him heavily.

Tathra's back six have been a strong point for the club in recent outings, with multiple-flag winners like Luke Taylor and Jarrod Palmer, the defenders could also prove influential in shutting down the likes of Luke Talty, Jeremy Sly and Simon Mackie.

It's been a dour year for the Sea Eagles, who would benefit from the result because a loss to Narooma would put the hosts in the difficult scenario of having won only a third of their matches.

Meanwhile, the Eaglettes are sitting proud of the competition in the women's draw, four points clear of their nearest rivals in the Eden Whalers.

However, the Lionesses are emerging alongside the Bermagui Breakers as potential danger rosters with the Lions sitting just a further four points behind Eden to hold third on the table.

"We are prepared for a tough game." Cymmon Parker said.

The teams will go in fresh off a two-week break.

"We have a different team to the last time we played them, we have some outs, but we've also got girls who have matured a lot as players and we are looking forward to it," Parker said.

"It should be a good contest."

Matches will go ahead at Tathra's Lawrence Park on Saturday with senior play from 11.50am in reserves.

Round 12 Preview

Tathra v Narooma

Narooma have been on a role in recent weeks although this weekend is set to be a big test for the Lions with the Sea Eagles set to pounce on home soil. Games between the two clubs at Lawrence Park have historically been close in recent seasons and this one is set to be no different. Both sides have plenty to play for with Narooma in pole position to claim top spot and a home semi final whilst Tathra will be looking to pounce on third spot with Pambula struggling with injuries and to find their best form. Player to Watch: Samuel Nugent, Back for the weekend on a matchday permit from Molonglo in Canberra, look for the Narooma junior to enjoy playing for the Lions once again. Prediction: Narooma by 25 Points.

Eden v Pambula

The Panthers will be looking to get back on track this weekend and claim the four points against the Whalers in Eden this weekend. The Panthers are dealing with a number of injuries and absences to key players like Charlie Shepherd and Jake Taylor although Eden will be without a couple of key pieces due to holidays and injury. The last time these two played was a close hard fought contest, look for it to be like that yet again this weekend. Eden will be looking to claim win number one for the season whilst the Panthers will be keen to keep third. Player to Watch: Justin Dickson, Has been in and out throughout the season although the Panthers are a much better side when he steps on the field. Look for the Panthers to have the upper hand this weekend if Dickson is to play. Prediction: Merimbula by 39 Points.

Women's

There are some big games in the women's competition this weekend although the biggest is set to be Merimbula hosting Bega in the matchup between two teams both looking for their first win of the season. The Diggers will have home field advantage this weekend although the Bombers will feel that they can take the win this weekend as they currently sit above Merimbula on the competition ladder. Another big game this weekend sees Tathra host Narooma. The Lions will be looking to bounce back from a loss to local rivals Bermagui as they play a Sea Eagles side full of confidence as the side sits unbeaten atop the ladder. Pambula and Narooma sit four points above the Breakers on the ladder and wins elsewhere this weekend could see the race to the finals get very interesting. In Eden the Whalers host the Breakers in what should be a cracking contest. The last time these two played, Eden won a tight contest and it is set to be another tight one this weekend. A win for Bermagui would be a huge result for the team which is starting to believe they can beat the top teams in the competition. The final game this weekend sees Pambula host the Giants in another important game. The Giants have been extremely competitive this season and will be confident of a win against Pambula who have won four in a row. Player to Watch: Jorja Moore, One of Bermagui's best in 2018, Moore had a great carnival for the Sting-ray's youth girls side with her ferocious tackling. Prediction: Tathra, Eden, Bega & Pambula.

Round 12 Preview

Under 16s

This weekend sees the top two sides go head to head with Tathra hosting Narooma in a game that will see the winner take sole position on top of the ladder. The Sea Eagles have won 4 of their last 5 fixtures and with Harrison Bromwich unlikely to play this weekend, Tathra sit in pole position to claim the four points. In Merimbula the Diggers host Bermagui in what could be a vital game for Merimbula. The Diggers sit 4 points outside the top four and will need to start winning some matches if they are to creep into the top four. Bermagui's form has surprised some in 2018 with the team having 5 more wins than in 2017, look for the Breakers to make it six. Down in Pambula, the Panthers host the Giants in a key game for the clubs. The Giants have had greater consistency in their lineup in recent weeks playing some better football in recent weeks which has yielded some good results for the club. The Panthers will need a big performance this weekend if they are to claim the four points. Player to Watch: Jack Hirst, The Giant was arguably the Stingrays best player up in Nowra during rep weekend and he will look to continue that good form this weekend. Prediction: Tathra, Bermagui & Broulee/Moruya.

Under 14s

A couple of big games in the under 14s competition this weekend. Merimbula host Bega at Berrambool this weekend and a win for the Diggers would see the side move 8 points clear in fourth place on the ladder. Prior to the break the Diggers were victorious in their match over Bega and with 2 wins in 3 games the Diggers will be looking to make it 3 in 4. Bega were impressive against Pambula in their last match and will be looking to bring that form this weekend. In Pambula the Panthers take on third placed Broulee/Moruya, the Giants were blown away by Bermagui in their last match and will be looking for a better performance this weekend against another quality opponent. Pambula were sluggish against Bega prior to the break and will want a big game this weekend. In the final match the Sea Eagles host Bermagui where the Breakers go into the match as keen favourites. At opposite ends of the table the Breakers should be too good in this contest. Player to Watch: Billy Spackman, The Merimbula Digger played well for the Stingrays in Nowra as a bototm ager. Prediction: Merimbula, Bermagui & Pambula.

Under 12s

Round 12 sees the return of junior football after a couple of weeks off due to rep football and school holidays. The big match of the weekend sees Pambula hosting Broulee/Moruya in what is shaping up as a huge game for both clubs. The Giants have won three straight games prior to the break and sit just 4 points behind the fourth placed Panthers. Pambula will be looking to keep their good form going as well as the side claimed the four points against Bega last time out. The Whitby twins have been good inclusions for the Panthers and a win on the weekend should see the Panthers edge four points above Bega who take on the unbeaten Merimbula this weekend. The Diggers are undefeated in 2018 whilst Bega have struggled to kick big scores against the top sides this season. The Bombers will need to hit the scoreboard this weekend if they are to trouble the Diggers on home soil. In Tathra the Sea Eagles host the Narooma Lions, who have an unblemished record since the second round. It will take a monumental effort by Tathra to knock off the Lions who have been playing some good football prior to the mid season break. In the final game of the weekend the Whalers host Bermagui with both teams looking to get back on the winners list after both teams dropped games prior to the break. The Breakers look set to play off in the elimination semi final as they sit 8 points adrift of the top two. The Whalers have struggled since Jemma Pollock went down injured early in the season although a good performance is often seen against the Breakers. Player to Watch: Tom Miller, The Merimbula junior had a good representative carnival with Miller looking like he will have many more in years to come. Miller has been vital to the Diggers succes so far in 2018. Prediction: Narooma, Bermagui, Pambula & Merimbula.
