DIGGING DEEP FOR DERBY

Merimbula Diggers will host the Pambula Panthers, with the senior men's bounce at 2.30pm.

Pambula is coming off a bye, while Merimbula 12.12 (84) defeated the Tathra Sea Eagles 6.12 (48) last weekend. For the Diggers, both Daniel Worden and Jedd Martyn kicked four majors apiece to lead the way for the home team.

The Diggers have now won eight of their 10 games played this season so far. It sees them lock in second place on the ladder behind the clear ladder leader Narooma.

"It was a good day out for the club, we won five of the six games played," club president Jason Raeck said on Monday.

The only game the Diggers dropped was in the ladies, where Tathra is known for its strong quality outfit, evident in the 20.11 (131) to 0.0 (0) scoreline.

Raeck said the game against the Sea Eagles men was a quality game of Aussie rules football.

"Tathra are always out to win it and they came back at us several times during the game," he said. "It was very close at the start but we started to run away from them the later it got."

A disappointing outcome of the game was the loss of Will Regan for the remainder of the season with a broken collarbone.

"He has had to have a plate put in, he did a good job of it," Raeck said.

"There was no malice in it, just unlucky. He's had plenty of bigger hits on him than that and bounced back, it was just unlucky physics this time around."

Another unfortunate loss is Panthers' star pickup this season, former Digger and ruckman Harrison Peters, who coach Paul Noack said cut his foot surfing.

It's hoped Peters will be back for finals should the Panthers make it through, and in the meantime, Tom Ferguson performed superbly in the ruck last start.

"The local derby is always a hard tussle," Noack said.

"I think it will be a close game, we've been really tight all season."

Giving the Panthers something extra to play for, the game will be captain Dylan Cook's 100th for the club.

"Pambula is always tough being the local rivalry," Merimbula president Raeck said.

"There's a lot of history between the two clubs and that shows on game day.

"We're probably going in as favourites this coming weekend, but you never know on the day."

As for the final round encounter with Narooma, Raeck pointed out the Lions' only loss this season was at the hands of Merimbula, back in round two.

"We've been tight all season, but it will be interesting as we haven't seen them in a little while."

At Berrambool Oval on Saturday, the women's game starts at 1.10pm with the senior men from 2.30.

BID FOR $380K OVERHAUL

Sportsmen and women may be able to kit up in comfort at future sporting events at Bill Smyth Oval if Eurobodalla Shire Council's bid for a $380,000 NSW Government grant succeeds.

Boys and girls have been forced to share change rooms at the oval, sparking complaints from sporting groups and parents.

A council spokeswoman said plans included extended change rooms, with two new sets of shower bays and new toilets. Significant upgrades to water and sewer services and a verandah extension were also required.

"The council applied to the NSW Government's Stronger Country Communities Fund in May," she said.

"We expect to hear the outcome of the application during August; total cost of the project is $479,000 and the council will contribute the balance."

She said the council recognised extra infrastructure was required to cater for the wide variety of users of Narooma's sporting precinct.

Bega MP Andrew Constance has encouraged the shire to apply for state government funding for the oval.

Meanwhile, the Bill Smyth Oval Redevelopment Committee - which is pushing for a major overhaul of the entire complex and fields - lobbied the NSW Opposition on Monday.

You have a netball court sitting over there with no facilities

Committee spokesman Graham Peachey told Shadow sports minister Lynda Voltz "netball players were getting changed in the bushes, had to be chaperoned across the oval to get water, and had no facilities".

Ms Voltz said it was a familiar story, as "44 per cent of sports fields didn't have facilities for women".

"Netball is the largest womens' sport in Australia by a country mile, and you have a netball court sitting over there with no facilities," Ms Voltz said.

Mr Peachey's wishlist also includes a second oval with lighting, a second netball court with change rooms, and grandstand seating.

"This is the most used oval in the shire," he said.

"The group we have together - representing all the different sports codes and community groups - is working with the council to get outcomes for this oval."

Councillor Lindsay Brown attended Monday's meeting and said the precinct would be a major focus of strategic planning for the council this year.

"Council knows how busy this oval gets. In recent times, the increase in the participation of women in sport has provided impetus to focus on this project."

Round 14 Preview

Merimbula v Pambula

The local derby sees the Diggers host the Panthers in Merimbula this weekend with both sides looking eager to claim the four points this weekend. The Panthers have plenty to play for this weekend as they look to keep themselves in the hunt to claim a home semi final whilst it is also captain Dylan Cook's 100th game for the club this weekend. The Diggers were dealt a blow last weekend as they lost young player Regan with a broken collarbone and the club will be looking to put that behind them as they aim for 4 points. Player to Watch: Tom Ferguson, Ferguson has been playing well for the Panthers this season and has had plenty of time in the middle for the Panthers. Prediction: Merimbula by 10 Points.

Eden v Tathra

The Whalers will take on Tathra this weekend on mutual soil as the Whalers host at Dickinson Oval this weekend. In a big weekend, the Bermagui Breakers will unveil a commemorative seat in honor of Marcus Shaw who played for the Breakers and Sea Eagles in 2018. Both clubs are coming off a loss last weekend and with both clubs having more losses then wins in 2018, both clubs will be keen to pick up the four points this weekend. With the Sea Eagles set to play finals football, they will need to lift their game in the closing weeks if they are to make noise in the finals. Player to Watch: Nick Lazzaro, Has played well across half back for the Sea Eagles in 2018. Prediction: Tathra by 27 Points.

Women's

The final four is all but sewn up in the women's grade with Bermagui most likely needing to win their final three games whilst having some games go their way. The Breakers host Narooma this weekend and a Narooma win will end the Breakers finals chances. This is set to be a big game with Bermagui taking the points earlier in the season. In Merimbula, the Diggers host the Panthers in the local derby. The Panthers have had the edge over the Diggers claiming every contest between the two sides and that most likely will not change this weekend after Pambula claimed a solid win against Bermagui last weekend. Pambula still has the opportunity to claim a top two finish although will need results to go their way in the final rounds. Up in Tuross the Giants host the Whalers in what should be a tough contested contest. The Giants have been competitive against the top sides in 2018 without claiming the four points although the Giants will feel confident after challenging the side away from home earlier in the season. With the longest road trip in the league, look for the Giants to potentially cause an upset this weekend.

In the final match of the season the Tathra Sea Eagles host the Bega Bombers. The Sea Eagles were dominant against Merimbula last weekend and the team should be able to boost their percentage again this weekend against the bottom placed Bega Bombers. Bega will host Merimbula next weekend and will want a positive result this weekend. Player to Watch: Telea Moreton-Stewart, new recruit for the Lions has all the intangibles to be a star for the Lions. Prediction: Eden, Tathra, Narooma & Pambula.

Round 14 Preview

Under 16s

With the Broulee Moruya Giants and Tathra Sea Eagles having the bye this weekend, it is just the two games in the under 16's this weekend although both are key games in a tight under 16's competition as we head into finals football. In Bermagui, the Breakers host their northern rivals the Narooma Lions with Narooma sitting top of the table. The Giants outlasted the Lions last weekend and a win this weekend will almost guarantee Narooma of a top two finish and therefore a home semi final. Bermagui have been playing some good football in recent weeks and this one is set to be a big game. In Merimbula, the Diggers host the Pambula Panthers. In recent seasons this has been the premier match-up although both teams currently sit outside the top four in the age group. A win this weekend will see the Diggers move into the top four although the team will be looking to add some percentage in a big win to separate themselves from the Giants currently sitting in fourth. The Panthers were competitive last weekend against the Breakers playing some good football in patches and the team will be looking to do it for four quarter this weekend. Player to Watch: Max Keltie, The Merimbula junior has been a big improver for the Diggers this season playing a key role down back for the club. Prediction: Narooma & Merimbula.

Under 14s

Like in the under 16's, this weekend sees only the two games in the under 14's with Broulee Moruya and Bermagui having the bye. After a couple of good wins over the past two weekend's the Giants are momentarily up to second place with Pambula down in third. The Panthers have the opportunity to draw level with the Giants on points this weekend as they take on rivals Merimbula although a better percentage should see the Giants remain in second if the Panthers claim the four points. The Diggers have been getting better each week and the team is starting to play some good football that should start to worry the top three sides. In the second game of the weekend the Tathra Sea Eagles host the Bega Bombers with both teams sitting outside the top four. The Bombers need to win their remaining three games to play finals football meaning that every match starting this weekend is finals football for the Bombers. The Sea Eagles will believe they can knock off the Bombers on home soil with this one to be an intriguing game. Player to Watch: Khama Geisler, the Sea Eagle is a bull with the football and runs at and through defenders with pace. Can play all over the ground. Prediction: Pambula & Bega.

Under 12s

There are some big games on the cards this weekend in the under 12's grade. In Tuross, the Giants host the Whalers in what is set to be a game that is up for grabs for both teams. The Giants will believe that home ground advantage will be a big factor in getting the four points this weekend whilst the Whalers young players have stepped up in recent weeks against the top four teams. Look for this one to go down to the wire. In Tathra, the Bega Bombers have a great opportunity to get back into the top four with Pambula set to take on the ladder leaders. Bega were too good for the Giants last weekend and a win and the team will be confident they can knock off the winless Sea Eagles at Lawrence Park. Tathra showed positive signs last weekend against Merimbula and will be keen to put a dent in their rivals finals chances. In Bermagui, it will be a rematch of last years grand finalists. Both teams had solid wins last weekend and a win for the Breakers on home soil this weekend could see them challenge for a top two finish again in 2018. A win for the Lions this weekend will ensure a top two finish. The final game of the weekend sees the undefeated Merimbula Diggers host the Pambula Panthers. The Diggers will want to remain undefeated in 2018 and will feel confident going into this weekends match against Pambula. The Panther are clinging to fourth spot and a surprise win this weekend could see them solidify their place in the four. Player to Watch: Tom Wilson, the young Lion has shown plenty of positive signs in 2018 and appears to be a big reason they sit 2nd. Prediction: Narooma, BM Giants, Merimbula & Bega.
