INDIGENOUS ARTIST SUPPORTS FOOTY 2 FIGHT MND

Aboriginal artist Merryn Apma has generously donated an original painting to support the Footy 2 Fight MND event in Narooma on Saturday 18 August, 2018.

The inaugural event “Footy 2 Fight MND” will see the Narooma Lions and the Merimbula Diggers clash in the last round of the regular home and away season for the Matt Ratcliffe and David Worden Memorial Shield.

Merryn, who is a close friend of Kathryn Ratcliffe (sister of Matt Ratcliffe), said the painting represents how MND's impact can be far reaching, and how it can affect anyone as well as through many generations.

“The large circle is a blooming Desert Rose, with white lines representing the brain, sending signals that something is breaking down,” she said.

“The symbols on the outside of the circle are people both male and female, with the smaller Desert Roses breaking away eventually falling to single petals representing how the disease progresses and breaks the body down.

“The small circles around the outside show all the areas working to try and find a cure.”

The painting can be viewed at Merryn's gallery, Apma Creations and Aboriginal Art Gallery in Central Tilba prior to the event. It will also be on display at Bill Smyth Oval on Saturday.

The painting will be auctioned at the Footy 2 Fight MND evening function at the Narooma Golf Club as part of the day's activities.

Here is how you can bid:

1. Attend the evening event. Tickets are available at the Narooma Golf Club.
2. Contact Kathryn Ratcliffe and nominate a proxy for bidding on the evening.
3. Bid live on line via the Footy 2 Fight MND Facebook Event page.

ROUND 15 PHOTOS OF THE WEEK...

SEA EAGLES FIRE INTO LAST ROUND

Tathra's final round in the Sapphire Coast AFL season will reflect their opening challenge in the finals as the team heads to Pambula to face the Panthers.

Tathra will be looking to finish the year on a high after some close losses saw the team slipping to fourth place behind Narooma, Merimbula and the Panthers.

However, the Panthers are not likely to give up easy with club veteran Sean Smith enjoying his 200th game this weekend.

In a career spanning 13 years at the Panthers, Smith has served in six grand finals and brought home the flag in four of those encounters.

Two of those occasions he was a playing-coach when the Panthers went back-to-back in 2014 and 15. "That was definitely a footy highlight for me, there is no Pambula team that has won back to back," Smith said.

This season, the four-time best and fairest for the Panthers is continuing his on-field excellence, but also taking a leading role as coach of the women's side. "The Panthers are my second family to me"

He has been a Panther for so long because he enjoys "The people involved in the club and the family atmosphere it brings"

Saturday will be reliving a classic rivalry for Smith.

"I want to go out there and just get a kick and play a good game," he said. "Tathra is my rival, because the first two years I moved here we played them in the grand final two years in a row."

Then, the results were split down the middle; "they beat us the first one in 2005, then we beat them the second one in 2006"

"I will probably be a bit nervous but I am really proud and excited to be playing, it takes a long time to get to 200."

Meanwhile, Tathra have undergone something of a reshuffle of playing positions with Luke Taylor bolstering the half-forward line, while Tom Lipsham takes charge of the defensive row.

Shane Gartside and Troy O'Loughlin remain as the key on-ballers for the Sea Eagles.

The Panthers will also host Tathra in the reserve and women's draws.

Dave Howard said the final round will be "another big game for the Eaglettes, searching for the win and two chances in the finals".

Pambula trail by just two points on the competition table, but Howard said the Eaglettes are ready for the contest.

"The girls have trained well this week and are keen to learn from our close loss to Eden.

"Look for a Tathra team attacking the ball in numbers. It should be the game of the round."

The Tathra reserves will similarly be looking to bounce back to the winners' circle, which would shore up their place at second on the leaderboard.

Play is at the Pambula Sporting Complex from 11.50am on Saturday.

Round 16 Preview

Pambula v Tathra

This one is set to be the match of the round this weekend with a win for either side set to see the club claim third place on the ladder and the opportunity to claim home field advantage for the minor semi final. Both clubs haven't shown their best form in recent weeks and this will be an interesting match too see who can take the ascendancy early in the match. With plenty to play for, look for this one to get heated as both sides look to gain home field advantage for next weekend's minor semi final where the two teams will again square off. Player to Watch: Luke Taylor, the veteran Sea Eagle has been Tathra's best in recent weeks and will want a win this weekend. Prediction: Tathra by 10 Points.

Narooma v Merimbula

A big game this weekend both on and off the field for both Narooma and Merimbula. Not only is it the battle between the two top sides but it is also the annual MND fixture between the two clubs to help raise awareness and money for MND research. These two clubs are set to go head to head in two weeks in the major semi final and both teams will be eager to get the mental edge against one another. The Lions have shown great form in recent weeks and will go into the match as favorites although the young Merimbula side are confident they can claim the upset. Player to Watch: Daniel Worden, The inspirational Merimbula captain will be ready for this weekends game. Prediction: Tathra by 20 Points.

Women's

Although the final four is set for 2018, there is still some big matches this weekend in the women's grade. All season it appeared as though it would be Eden and Tathra finishing as the top two sides although a Pambula win this weekend against Tathra would see the Panthers and Sea Eagles swap positions on the ladder. Pambula were convincing winners against Narooma last weekend whilst the Sea Eagles lost the top of the table clash to Eden. In Bega, the Bombers were unable to get their first win of the season last weekend against Merimbula and it doesn't get any easier for the Bombers as they play the ladder leading Eden Whalers. Look for Eden to claim the minor premiership this weekend. In Narooma the Lions host the Merimbula Diggers with Narooma looking to gain some momentum heading into finals. the Lions have lost three straight games and will need to turn that form around if they are to challenge the top three sides in the finals. Merimbula have claimed two wins this season in two close games against Bega. The club will be confident going into this weekends match although this weekends match will be a tough one. In the final match of the weekend, Bermagui host Broulee/Moruya. The Giants claimed the four points last weekend at home and Bermagui will be looking to do the same on home soil this weekend. This match is set to be another cracking contest between the two sides. Player to Watch: Zalie Betts, The Narooma youngster has led from the front this season for her club and will be looking to have a big impact come finals next weekend. Prediction: Eden, Bermagui, Narooma & Tathra.

Round 16 Preview

Under 16s

There is still plenty to play for this weekend in the under 16's grade with some big games on the cards.

Tathra sit outside the top two on percentage, although the Sea Eagles will be confident that they can have a big win this weekend to overtake Bermagui even if the Breakers claim the four points this weekend. It has been a tough season for the Panthers and the club will be looking to have a good performance to finish the season. It was a close game last weekend between the Giants and breakers and this weekend will be no different with Broulee/Moruya needing to win to play finals football in 2018. The Giants have the ability to beat any team on their day and will need to bring their best this weekend. Bermagui need a win this weekend if they are to maintain a top two finish and set up a huge major semi final with their northern rival Narooma. In Narooma, the Lions take on Merimbula having claimed the minor premiership last weekend. A win this weekend for Merimbula will see the club sew up a finals spot although the team will need to be at its best this weekend if they are to knock off the minor premiers. Player to Watch: Theodore Turner, The Broulee/Moruya Giant player is a difference maker and a big performance this weekend will be needed to see his side play finals this season. Prediction:

Narooma, Tathra & BM Giants.

Under 14s

After slipping down into third momentarily, Pambula are back up into the top two and should maintain a top two finish as they take on bottom placed Tathra this weekend at home. The Panthers peaked at this point last season to play their best football in the final rounds and finals to claim the premiership.

Tathra will want to be competitive this weekend in their final match of the season. In Bermagui, the Breakers will be looking to get off to a better start this weekend against the Giants with the Giants taking it up to the ladder leaders last weekend. The two clubs have aspirations to go deep into finals and they will want to both put in a good performance this weekend. The final match of the weekend sees Bega host Merimbula with Bega looking to finish the season on a high. The Diggers have sewn up fourth place and with their finals berth assured the team will be looking to gain momentum heading into their minor semi final next weekend. Player to Watch: Jayden Rafferty, the Merimbula junior has been a good pick up in 2018 playing a key role in defense for Merimbula. Prediction: Pambula, Bermagui & Merimbula.

Under 12s

Bega are still a mathematical chance of playing finals football this season although will need some results to go their way this weekend. The Bombers host Eden at Roy Howard Oval and the team is in a good position to take the four points this weekend. The Bombers are unable to rely on percentage this weekend and will need the Pambula Panthers to drop points this weekend. The Panthers host Tathra this weekend with the Sea Eagles coming off their first win of the season last weekend against the Eden Whalers. Tathra played some inspiring football last weekend and will be keen to do so again this weekend to finish their season on a high. If Bega are to win, the Panthers also need to claim the four points and the side will be confident with the Panthers challenging Narooma for three quarters last weekend to prove that they can make some noise come finals time if they are to claim the four points this weekend. In Bermagui the Breakers host the Giants as they look to head into their finals series full of confidence.

The Breakers were too good for the Giants last weekend in Tuross in a close game and this weekend looks like it will be another good game between the northern clubs. In the final match of the weekend, the top two sides in Narooma and Merimbula go head to head in what will be an entertaining match between the two clubs. The winner this weekend will claim the minor premiership before they take on each other in two weeks time. Player to Watch: Tyge Matters, The Bermagui junior is back after missing the majority of the season with a broken wrist. Prediction: Narooma, Bermagui, Bega & Pambula.
