

NEW SOUTH WALES AUSTRALIAN FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

In 2020, AFL NSW/ACT will establish the New South Wales Australian Football Hall of Fame to commemorate the 140 year anniversary of the NSW Australian Football Association.

Inductees of the NSW Australian Football Hall of Fame may cover all levels of football in NSW, from the elite to the community, and includes players, coaches, umpires, administrators and media representatives.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Candidates will be judged on their outstanding service and overall contribution to the game of Australian Football, and their individual record, ability, integrity, sportsmanship and character.

- The number of football games played, coached or umpired or the years of service provided shall only be a consideration and shall not be determinative in assessing a candidate's eligibility;
- A player, coach, umpire, administrator or media representative involved at any level of Australian Football may be eligible for induction;
- Candidates are to be judged on their overall contribution to Australian Football in NSW, as opposed to one specific aspect;
- Candidates may be born or from outside of NSW;
- Players, Coaches, umpires, administrators, volunteers and media representatives do not need to be retired to be eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame.

NOMINATIONS

The nominations are assessed by the 7-person Selection Committee which is comprised of respected volunteer administrators, historians, regional representatives and AFL staff.

Proposed nominations should be submitted to the relevant league or umpiring association for consideration and submission to AFL NSW/ACT.
